AUTO ORDINANCES DISREGARDED

Almost every day someone points out the utter disregard of the automobile regulations in Paris. We have personally noted many of them, and others have been told us by eye-witnesses. The police are doing all in their power to curb the growing recklessness and carelessness of drivers, but the task is one that that would require more men than now compose the force.

One of the most flagrant and frequently-violated provisions of the ordinances is that which forbids drivers leaving their machines standing, with engine running. This is violated every day. The driver of a big oil truck drew up in front of the postoffice one day last week, and went in to transact some business with Uncle Sam's men, leaving the engine of his machine running. In some way the machine started off of its own accord, and ran across the street, crashing into an iron fence in front of the home of William Clark, on Pleasant street, before it could be stopped. The driver, hastily summoned by a colored man who had seen the machine start off, ran after it and succeeded in stopping it after it had run into the fence. Had there been children or even grown people in the path they might have been killed or seriously injured. A little carelessness may yet cause the death or maiming of some innocent person.

FLEMING MAN ARRESTED ON LARCENY CHARGE

Deputy Sheriff Powell, of Fleming county, came to Paris and took back with him to Flemingsburg, Frank Powers, a young white man, wanted by the Fleming county authorities on a larceny charge. Powers was taken into custody here by Patrolman Robt. Lusk on information from Flemingsburg.

According to Sheriff Powell, Mr. Garrett, proprietor of a manumetal works at Flemingsburg, had given Powers employment, and had taken him to his home following an appeal from Powers for assistance. Powers later disappeared, taking with him a suit of clothes and several other articles of wearing apparel belonging to his benefactor. The officers stated that Powers shortly after arrest, admitted his guilt, and restored the stolen property.

BIG LOT OF TOBACCO SOLD IN AUGUST.

During the month of August 2,038,750 pounds of the 1918 crop of tobacco were sold for $210,162.62, or an average of $10.21 per hundred pounds. Of the 1918 crop 26,514 pounds were sold for $26,742.54 or an average of $10.08 per hundred pounds.

ALLEGED DESERTER ARRESTED HERE RELEASED

Affidavits declaring him to be of unsound mind saved Morris Cleveland Shanks, alleged deserter, temporarily from return to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, at Chicago, Friday. The young man was placed under arrest here several days ago by Chief of Police Link, on information from the Navy department, charging him with desertion. He was turned over by the county authorities to Sergt. J. H. Miller, who came from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, with papers for Shanks' return to the post. Upon presentation of the affidavits Shanks was released on a writ of habeas corpus, and taken in charge by his father, who vouched for his appearance in the future, if wanted. It was alleged that Shanks enlisted at the Navy recruiting station in Cincinnati and was given transportation to Chicago, but failed to arrive there. He was located at his home near Ruddles Mills, where he had returned, instead of proceeding to his destination.

NOTICE TO BLUE GRASS B. Y. P. U. ASSOCIATION

The officers of the Blue Grass Association met in Paris, Ky., Saturday, August 28, to complete the program for the Association, which will be held in Paris, Ky., the 7th and 8th of October, 1920.

The program will be interesting and beneficial to all. The Paris people urge all who can to stay for both days. If Mr. T. W. Spicer, of Paris, is a sample of the Paris people, is a sample of the Paris people. So prepare now to spend the 7th and 8th of October with these good people who want you and are planning to entertain you.

MARY ARMSTRONG, Georgetown, Ky.

ANTO COLLIDES WITH TELEPHONE POLE.

Dr. Frances P. Campbell and daughter, Miss Mary Frances Campbell, of Paris, had a miraculous escape from injury Sunday morning near Paris, when the machine in which they were riding was thrown against a telephone pole.

Miss Campbell was driving, and when near a point near the Georgetown pike bridge over Houston Creek, the car struck a deep rut in the road, giving the machine a twist, and causing Miss Campbell to lose control of the steering wheel. The machine plunged down a steep embankment, in its descent, striking a telephone pole at the edge of the creek, arresting its flight. The car was considerably damaged, but the occupants escaped uninjured. The creek was swollen by heavy rains, and but for the fortunate intervention of the telephone pole the car might have plunged into the swift current, and the occupants drowned.

TOBACCO CROPS IN COUNTY IN BAD SHAPE.

Weather conditions that have prevailed in this county for most of the past summer and into the present week, have been a contributing factor in the destruction of many tobacco crops, and tobacco men are faced with almost certain ruin of their crops. Near North Middletown the "rust" is a serious menace, nearly all the crops in that vicinity being affected, and many being houseburned. It is said that about half the crops have been cut or housed. Some farmers, it was stated yesterday, have about decided to take their crops out of the barn, giving it up as a complete loss.

Many are using stoves and heaters in their barns, while others are trying to dry it out by taking it out of the barn and hanging on scaffolds. In some cases, the tobacco rots at the root of the stalk and falls off. THE NEWS was told yesterday of one Paris man who had a nice crop of the weed, which had been cut and safely housed in the barn. The crop was thought to be in first-class shape. Saturday the owner made a close inspection, and to his dismay, discovered that it had practically rotted. Taking a stick of the tobacco from the rail on which it hung, he found that the whole mass had rotted, due to the influences of weather and other causes, and was practically worthless. The same thing is reported from a number of other places.

In other parts of the county tobacco crops have been declared worthless and have been abandoned, while in other sections the crops do not seem to have been hurt. Not in the memory of the oldest inhabitant has the tobacco situation in this county presented such a varied aspect, from excellent to worthless.

The excessive rains have damaged the tobacco crops in Clark county to an alarming extent. In nearly all sections of the county, there is a prevalence of rust, and many crops are almost a total failure from house burn.

Some farmers around Keene and Troy, in Jessamine county, are reported to be plowing up their tobacco fields preparatory to sowing them in wheat this fall.

BLACK BIRDS DESTROY CORN.

Bourbon county farmers in a number of precincts complain of depredations made in their corn fields by the visits of large numbers of black birds (of the feathered kind.) The birds pull the corn shucks open and eat part of the grain. The continued rains cause the exposed corn to rot as the moisture gets inside the shucks where they have been opened. One farmer near Paris said he had lost the greater part of the corn in three fields from this cause.

NEGRO ARRESTED CHARGED WITH ROBBERIES

Acting on information supplied by the authorities at Versailles, Chief of Police Link, assisted by Patrolman Lusk, went to Claysville, the negro suburb of Paris, yesterday afternoon, and placed under arrest Jeff Johnson, colored, aged forty-six, charged with jail breaking, and violating his parole. Johnson was taken to the Paris jail to await action on his case.

Johnson was put through a course of "sprouts" by the arresting officers, and made a full confession, in which he admitted robbing stores at different places through the central part of the State. Upon being asked to name these stores Johnson gave the following list, which he said he had broken into and where he had stolen and made away with a large quantity of goods: Two at High Bridge, one each at Silver Creek, and Paint Lick, in Madison county, Valley View, Tyronne, Lawrenceburg, Duncan's Cross Roads, Keyes Cross Roads, two at Millersburg, two at Midway, Butler, two at Falmouth, Shawhan, Lair, Boyd, Centerville, Red House, Elkton and the Phosphate Mines Company store, near Midway. He is suspected of having had a hand in the robbery of the Harry Simon department store at Paris.

Johnson, who claims Madison county as his home, has served two terms of four years each in the Frankfort Reformatory on similar charges, and one year from Winchester. He escaped from the Versailles jail on June 15, and had since been at large. In that time most of the robberies to which he made confession to the Paris officers had been committed. He will now be slated for a life term under the provisions of the legislative act making a third conviction a life sentence. He was paroled from the Reformatory in 1916. The Paris authorities will endeavor to hold Johnson here in the hopes of gleanings some positive information from him in regard to the Simon store robbery, of which they are convinced he knows more than he has told.

FORMAL OPENING OF DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN

Enthusiastic approval was given the Democratic party on the formal opening of its campaign in Kentucky, Saturday, with endorsement of the League of Nations and the legislative program of the national administration the dominant features.

The Republican administration in Kentucky was scored bitterly by Congressman Alben W. Barkley in a keynote speech at Frankfort.

Judge Samuel M. Wilson, speaking at Cynthiana, gave a synopsis of Governor Jas. M. Cox's career from early manhood and outlined the Democratic administration's record, giving reasons for his belief that the Democrats will carry Kentucky in the November election. He stated that the ticket is eminently satisfactory in every respect.

Senator J. C. W. Beckham, making the second speech of his campaign for re-election to the United States Senate in Lebanon, Saturday, took the Republican party severely to task for attempting to make political capital out of war's conditions and its effects in this country.

State candidates, headed by Senator J. C. W. Beckham, entered formally into the campaign Saturday, the senior Senator speaking at Lebanon, with Mrs. John Fulton, of Bardonia; Congressman Alben W. Barkley, at Frankfort; Congressman David H. Kincheloe, with Mrs. John B. Castlemann, at Hardinsburg, and Judge W. Rogers Clay at Danville. Senator A. O. Stanley spoke in the afternoon at Greenville and at Central City in the evening.

Especially significant was the presence of women at the twenty meetings held in the several sections of the State. Results of the organization being perfected by Mrs. Samuel Wilson, vice-chairman of the Democratic campaign committee, were seen in the large percentage of women at the several meetings.

Every indication points to a heavy woman's vote for the Democrats, who have preceded the Republicans several weeks in their organization of the newly enfranchised voters.

PARIS SCHOOL NOTES

The State Department of Education will hold an examination for fourth-class cities in Paris, Friday and Saturday, September 17 and 18. This will be the last examination held for fourth-class cities this year. If you want to qualify to teach in the Paris schools during the present year, take this examination.

The Paris City Schools are now offering courses in shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping and allied subjects, to girls and young women who are working. Arrange with their employers and with the school to come to the school for instruction at certain hours.

Jemima Johnson Chapter, D. A. R., of Paris, will join the faculty and pupils of the Paris City Schools in a celebration of "Constitution Day," to be held in the auditorium of the Paris High School at three o'clock, next Friday afternoon, September 17. The principal address for the occasion will be delivered by Dr. Dorothy Stimson, head of the Department of History of Transylvania College.

STATE BANKERS ELECT NEW OFFICERS.

Election of officers, committee reports and a general discussion of interest rates were the principal matters before the Kentucky Bankers' Association, Wednesday, bringing to a close the twenty-eighth annual convention.

C. H. Ellis, Sturgis, was elected president of the association to succeed John H. Welch, of Nicholasville. Other officers selected are Harry G. Smith, Louisville, secretary, re-elected; J. W. Richards, Owensville, treasurer, succeeding C. A. Doris, Dixon. The members of the executive committee, elected for a three-year term are: Sam Nichols, Danville; C. E. Hearn, Clay, and L. W. Brashear, Hazard; S. L. Palmer, Benton, was chosen president of the State Bank section, and George E. Engle, Covington, will occupy a similar position in the National Bank section.

The election of vice-presidents was postponed until a later meeting.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Many matters of vital importance to the citizens of Paris were carried forward at the recent meeting of the City Council. Mayor E. B. January presided.

The only absentee was Councilman Catesby Spears, who is in Canada, on his honeymoon trip. The Council disposed of some minor matters of routine business, after which a resolution, passed at another meeting, calling for the reconstruction of certain named streets with curbing and guttering, was adopted by a unanimous vote, and ordered published. The ordinance is published in this issue of THE NEWS. The streets specified in the ordinance are those between Pleasant and High, intersecting Main street. They are to be rebuilt of permanent material.

A request from the citizens of Newtown street, asking that the street be included in the scope of improvement work, was referred to the Improvement Committee. D. V. Terrill, Dean of the College of Civil Engineering at the University of Kentucky, submitted a report on a sample of oil used in oiling the city streets, showing that it possessed no value other than as a dust preventative. Instructions were given to City Engineer Boerner to begin immediately the improvement work on South Main street, from Fourteenth to Twentieth. The Improvement Committee approved the recently finished concrete work on Pleasant street, and ordered the contractors paid. According to the report the city's share in the expense will be $8,860.60. Application from Calvert Meng for permission to rebuild his barn and garage, on Mt. Airy avenue, recently destroyed by fire, was referred to the Fire Committee.

WEEKLY BANK CLEARING

September has seemingly absorbed a small part of the business slump during August, as evidenced by the weekly bank clearings report. Business will take on a better tone as soon as the safety of the tobacco and other crops are assured. Merchants do not anticipate a very large volume of business until the fall crops are harvested. The report of the four banks for last week follows:

First National	$175,263.58
Farmers & Traders	76,916.09
Bourbon-Agricultural	205,493.15
Peoples - Deposit	199,099.39

A decrease of $29,638.71 as compared with previous week's report.

FALL RACE MEETING AT LEXINGTON TRACK

Racing activities will shift from the Eastern tracks to Lexington on September 18, when the fall meeting will open for a seven days racing program. The best stables from the Eastern tracks are now at Lexington, and many others will be shipped so as to reach the training quarters in ample time before the opening event.

There will be six races daily, and no purses will be for less than $800. Racing Secretary Wm. H. Shelby has provided a program of events which will include some of the best-known fliers of the turf, and lovers of "the sport of Kings" will be guaranteed an enjoyable seven-days' racing. Several Bourbon county horses will compete for racing honors at this meeting.

In addition to the racing program daily concerts will be given by one of the most prominent musical organizations in the country. The grounds and track are being worked every day by a large force of workmen and the opening day will find everything in fine shape for the crowds.

PRISONERS MADE ALCOHOL FROM CORN BREAD

At Henderson, Jailer Bob Davis found a crude but complete moonshine still in the jail, being operated by seven white prisoners. The still was made from a coal oil can, with a small can underneath to hold the fire. The men had distilled more than a pint of "white mule" from sour cornbread.

For a siphon they had torn up a new disinfectant spray and inserted it in the top of the coal oil can to allow the "juice" to run into a tin can. Fire was made from torn-up blankets in the can underneath, and it was the rag smoke that led the jailer to make the discovery.

For several days past the white prisoners had complained they were not getting enough cornbread. Extra supplies have been furnished them, and it was from the bread they made the moonshine.

SHOT BY NEGROES ON FREIGHT TRAIN.

Two white men, Milford Lawson and J. C. Stanford, both of Corbin, were shot but not seriously wounded, between Shawhan and Paris, Saturday night by two negroes. The men were beating their way from Cincinnati to Paris on an L. & N. freight train. The negroes made their escape. The injured men were taken to the Harrison Hospital, in Cynthiana, where they were given medical attention. Lawson was shot in the abdomen, and Stanford in the hand.

REAL ECONOMY IN CLOTHES

REAL economy in clothes consists not in spending the least possible amount of money, but in getting the greatest possible amount of value for the money expended.

It is because this store seeks to give value above all else that we feature such smart garments that are made of all wool fabrics, firmly woven and full of wear.

Sewings are strong and long-lasting—fit is superb—outlook and outlast clothes of less careful construction. Simply overflowing with quality and value.

ARE YOU REALLY INTERESTED IN PARIS.

When you settle down to live in a place, you become a partner in the public enterprise of maintaining community life. This partnership exists, even among people who pay no taxes. If they buy supplies or pay board, they help pay taxes indirectly. Hence they are interested in this proposition of community maintenance.

But some people do not seem to realize that they have any share in this community of interest. Men who have charge of public parks say that hoodlums will come in and deliberately break down seats, trample on plants, and do other damage. If they find a strip of ground carelessly planted with grass seed, in the hope of making a beautiful lawn, they will maliciously or carelessly walk across it.

They seem to think it is funny to destroy something that other people have worked to create, even if in doing so they destroy something of their own. It is much as if a partner in a business walked into the office and began to take money out of the safe and throw it into the street.

A lot of people who know too much to commit any malicious acts, will yet offend in malicious ways through carelessness. They will cut corners on grass plots, until the next squares of turf look seedy and ragged. They carelessly throw away waste into the streets of which they are part owner, until the town looks slatternly.

Let us all here in Paris get this idea well in mind. We are all tacitly united in a purpose in which everyone has an equal interest, the maintenance and development of a high class town. Every one must make hold and help keep it orderly and beautiful. Every one ought to do something positive to help improve it. But if you can't set out a tree or plant shrubs, at least refrain from any damage to its property no matter how slight.

AUSTRALIAN MINISTRY SAY "PROHIBITION ANTI-CHRISTIAN"

Resolutions favoring prohibition were rejected by the Anglican synod in session at Adelaide, South Australia. In the debate one of the speakers, the Rev. Mr. Walker, said: "Prohibition is anti-Christian and the idea of American cranks."

THE FRONT PAGE VS. THE FRONT PORCH

(Courier-Journal)

The Democratic nominee makes the front page of the newspapers because he has constituted himself the pace-setter of the campaign. Despite established precedents which puts the burden of proof on the "outs" and permits the "ins" to satisfy themselves with rebuttals, the Democratic nominee has cudgelled his way into the van and is leading a merry chase to the gentleman from Marion.

COMPULSORY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE.

Surely not for long will attendance in Kentucky be thought of as compulsory attendance. The Kentuckian has only to realize that his child's welfare, happiness and usefulness are at stake, then he will make every effort to have that child in school every day. Parents will undergo hardships in these efforts because they realize along with other things the fact that in giving their child an education they are giving him about the only thing that cannot be taken away from him.

Most parents realize the loss of character and certain disgrace that is going to come to their child if he does not have an education. Every parent understands that it is the trained mind and hands that do the most effective and profitable work. Taxes are paid every year for the education of the children. These taxes are wasted if the children do not go to school.

To our shame it must be said, but last year there was an average attendance of 37 per cent. in Kentucky. Taxes were paid for a 100 per cent. attendance. Teachers were paid to teach all the children. Not only parents, but all tax-payers have a right to object to such a wastefulness of money. But there needs only to be an awakening to the great loss the children are suffering, then there will be the nearly 100 per cent. attendance.

DON'TS FOR HUNTERS

Don't shoot without this year's hunting license.

Don't kill more than fifteen doves in one day.

Don't kill more than twelve quails in one day.

Don't kill more than six woodcock in one day.

Don't kill wild turkey, imported pheasants or Hungarian partridges before November 15, 1924.

Don't snare rabbits at any time.

Don't hunt, pursue, chase, catch, kill injure or molest any deer before November 15, 1925.

Don't kill any Wood ducks, Elder ducks or swan at any time.

Don't kill, trap nor have in your possession at any time any song or insectivorous birds.

Don't fail to notify your local warden or this department of those who violate the law.

A fellow who hunts without a license is a cheater—see that he obeys the law.

Many a man is compelled to take married life according to directions.

The wrongs of our people are continually getting mixed up with our rights.

COURT DECISION IMPORTANT TO TRUCK OWNERS

The motion made before Chief Justice John D. Carroll, of the Court of Appeals to dissolve the injunction granted by Circuit Judge Robt. L. Stout, restraining the State Tax Commission from enforcing the "Mirror Law" was overruled. As a result of the decision, Judge Carroll sustains Circuit Judge Stout, who held that the law was unconstitutional in that it amended a statute and the amendment was not set out in full in the act.

The law was passed by the recent Legislature and it provided that motor trucks must carry mirrors on the side of the truck near the driver so that he could see vehicles approaching from behind. Albert Terstege, of Louisville, sued out the injunction and the appeal was taken from Judge Stout's decision by Attorney General Dawson in order to get the status of the law definitely settled.

APPROPRIATE JUST NOW.

I'm the guy who loses his temper when arguing about politics. When I know my ideas are right it makes me angry to think that anyone should disagree with me.

If you don't agree with me, you don't know what you are talking about, and that's all there is about it.

If you had any sense you'd see things the way I do. I have brains and you ought to give me credit for them and know that I'm right.

I don't care what your reasons or arguments are. I don't care what you think or what you say. I want you to listen to me and be guided accordingly.

And if you won't, why shouldn't I lose my temper?

If you're wrong, it's up to me to convince you.

And if you won't be convinced, you're dumb.

If you don't want me to lose my temper, don't argue.

Kidney sufferers hereabouts should read it.

Mrs. A. L. Burley, 329 Eighth street, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills, getting them from the Ardrey Drug Co. and from the benefit I received, I certainly think they are a good, reliable kidney remedy. Whenever my kidneys have acted irregularly or my back has been weak and lame, I have used a box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills. They have always relieved me of the complaint."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Burley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

WAR MOTHERS' EXECUTIVE BOARD HOLDS MEETING

The executive board of State War Mothers at a meeting held at the Phoenix hotel, in Lexington, perfected the plans for the State Convention of Kentucky War Mothers, which will be held in Louisville on October 1.

The convention will be held at the Seelbach hotel, which is to be the headquarters of the executive board. To this meeting all War Mothers are urged to come, whether they are members of an auxiliary or not, for the meeting is to unite all those who gave their men for the Great War for Human Liberty and Equality," say the members.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. William Dowell Oldham, State War Mother, who was in the chair; Mrs. Reuben B. Hutcher, Vice-State War Mother; Mrs. Louis Rogers, State Treasurer, and Mrs. Walter Payne, all of Paris; Mrs. George Spear, of Frankfort; Mrs. John Herring, of Georgetown; and Mrs. J. F. YOU KNOW THIS FELLOW!

I'm the guy who knocks papers off your desk when he brushes past it and never bothers to pick them up for you.

They're your papers, not mine, so why should I put myself out for you?

True, I knocked them off your desk, but I didn't do it intentionally. Anyway you shouldn't have them so near the edge that they can be brushed off.

Besides, if I stopped to pick them all up, it would take up my time and delay me. And my time is too valuable to me to waste it in that way.

It may interrupt your work, and use up your time, but what of it? You can work a little faster afterward and make up for it.

As it is the only one who gets upset over it is you. And you can take it out on me by muttering behind my back after I've passed by. That doesn't hurt me. I'm used to it.

You ought to be glad I didn't knock over your inkwell. Then you would have had a mess to clean up. And I wouldn't have helped you in that either.

EDITORIAL FLINGS OF THIS THAT 'EN 'TOTHER

An old-timer who has been away from Paris for several years, came back on a home-coming visit last week. While in one of the local pool rooms he was asking about a number of former acquaintances. "How's my old friend Reuben Stamps Moore?" he asked. Pearce Stamps Moore replied: "Oh, he's growing up with Harding!"

Dispatch in daily papers tells of a $93,600 bull in South America, at an International Stock Show. Well, that's a small price. We remember reading some time ago of a "bull" in New York that cost a big brokerage firm something over $300,000! But then the "bull" came from a telegraph operator's mistake.

A New York judge assessed a fine of $3 against a young man who climbed over the footlights in response to a prima donna's song, "Come To My Arms And Kiss Me." We are inclined to the belief that if this had happened in Paris, County Judge Batterson would have held the emotional young fellow over to the grand jury for being armed.

It used to shock us to read of the slaughter that made a Roman holiday, but with the automobile smash-ups, running down of innocent pedestrians, railroad wrecks and the various other kind of accidents in this vicinity, we seem to be doing pretty well along that line ourselves.

Some thirty years ago Paris woman's skirts gathered up all the germs on the streets. But in these glorious days of 1920, a germ has to climb so high to reach the hem of a skirt that he gets dizzy and falls and breaks his neck. Perhaps this is one reason Bourbon county women are healthier than they used to be.

THE VOLSTEAD LAW IS BADLY DISCREDITED

(Cincinnati Enquirer)

Time was when, happy in the belief that our Anglo-Saxon ancestors had established a fundamental principle of law, we Americans rejoiced in the inviolability of our home. We proudly boasted that in this land of inspiration and liberty a man's home truly was his castle. But we long had been groping in the darkness of fatuous error. We were ignorant in our bliss, mistaken in our faith. The ferret-eyed Goddess of Reform discovered our infirmities, and with divine prerogative set us in the straight and narrow path once more, there to walk with her guidance, not as home-stealers, but as Volsteaders.

Yes, the Volstead law came and saw and cornered us. Gone is our pride of domicile; gone the primal impulse to defend our own. Should we incautiously forget the cider jug in the cellar, or yet the juice expressed for innocent imprisonment in eloquent bottles, or intended to be used in the making of innocuous jelly. Nature, impersonal, skilled chemist that she is, performs her office without so much as a "by your leave."

Then comes a knock at our port-cullis gate; we admit the intruder and learn that we are criminal, subject to the high justice and the law; that we are responsible for more than one-half of 1 per cent. then and there found to be in our keeping. And so we bow to the majesty of the law.

Not alone do the common people cry out against the infliction of this law; now come Judges, Lictors and other interpreters and executors charged with its enforcement, decrying its heaven-anointed beneficence. Noteworthy among these is United States Commissioner Hurley, who says: "I regard the Volstead act the silliest, most ridiculous law ever written and imposed upon liberty-loving people. * * * If the act could be enforced in its entirety and we had an army of agents to enforce it, there would be 50,000 Cincinnatians arrested and recorded as law-breakers. This court room would be choked up 24 hours a day with defendants called to trial. Many people unwittingly are law-breakers, under the language of this law."

"What fools we mortals be."

A New York fireman is the inventor of an automatic fire alarm in which a phonograph is connected with a telephone and announces to an operator just where the fire starts.

IMPORTANCE OF OUR SCHOOLS TO THE CHILDREN

The week just past ushered in the 1920-21 term for Paris schools a decidedly important event in the lives of the teachers and pupils. Business is important; the result of the contest for the Presidency is important; church and social activities are important. But among all the necessary and cultural activities the chief asset of Paris now is and ever will be the splendid numbers of its educated children. No material wealth can be held to be the equivalent in value of this treasure. In the schools and their product are bound up and included all that progress, morality, prosperity and happiness can mean to the city.

The schools of Paris already are measured by the standard of highest excellence. Their fame has spread abroad throughout the Bluegrass. All our social, moral, artistic and commercial development in the community life are secondary to the value and importance of these schools. At the beginning of this second week of the new school year, when the young people of Paris are making ready for their battle against ignorance, preparing to go on under the guidance of competent and sympathetic instructors, it is well that the average citizen should realize that he can do much to assist and maintain the standard of excellence of the city's schools. The standard of the schools must ever be the criterion of the city's progress.

The schools, their regulation conduct and control, should always be divorced entirely from political influence and authority. Moreover, no school can produce the highest and best work until the teacher is empowered to exercise in the work of the school the widest latitude of personal judgment consistent with the public welfare. Concentration of power, in a Board of Education, to so great an extent that the teacher is but a mere creature of such a Board, is a policy which must make for inefficiency and retrogression. Let the Paris schools be made and continued real schools, fostered and guided by a wise Board of Education, inspired and vitalized by teachers unshorn of their independence.

WOMAN'S PARTY PROPOSALS

Among the early proposed blessings to be conferred by the National Woman's party we are told by the secretary of that organization, will be the further "emancipation" of womankind. If the policies of this feminine aggregation prevail "economic freedom for married women, under laws recognizing their right to maintain separate homes and be self-supporting" will become established fact.

Further states the Secretary: "Until women are economically free they cannot hope for full equality. Our marriage and divorce laws should be revised and made uniform in conformity with enlightened ideas."

So doth suffrage promise swift deliverance in case of a bad bargain, if our suffragette wives figure it out that way. Mary, being economically free, takes up her bed and walks to her independent, individual abode, while John hangs out at the old stand—if he is willing to stand for that sort of "enlightenment" matrimony.

Ingenious is this proposal with reference to easier divorces. Milady suffers from a bad liver, or a fit of hysteria, or both. The world, the flesh and her husband are against her. She is misnamed, miserable and mischievous. Away she hies in determined dudgeon to the nearest Cadi, where, according to her legal right to decide whether she will live in the same house with her husband or whether she will maintain a separate home, she demands and receives her divorce. Then, with tilted nose and scornful lips, she can go forth shouting "To triumph!" for deliverance from a mere appendage to her economic freedom.

Suffrage seems to pretend many peculiar possibilities.

"WOMEN MAY CHEW TOBACCO" SAYS JUDGE.

A woman asked W. H. Scott, a Kansas City policeman, how to reach an address. Scott told her. "Thanks," said the woman, and reaching into pocket of her coat took out a plug of tobacco and bit off a chew. Scott arrested her on a charge of disturbing the peace. In Municipal Court, Judge John M. Kennedy dismissed the case. "If woman may vote, why shouldn't they chew?" inquired the judge.

WILL YOU VOTE FOR HARDING OR COX?

The answer is: You will vote for neither! For the American voters, even with all the fine additions to their numbers by Tennessee's net-works, do not vote directly for Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates. The forefathers had an idea that the best scheme would be to pick out a sort of jury, made up of the best men of the country, who would get together and weigh the merits of the different candidates, and give the country the benefit of their profound deliberations. The electors are placed on the different tickets, and they always carry out their pledge to vote for the candidates whose cause they represent. So, the names of Cox and Roosevelt will be at the top of one ticket, and Harding and Coolidge at the top of another—but their names merely indicate that the bunch of unknowns underneath have the party o. k. A cross in the square at the top of the column is "the idea!" "Vote 'er straight, (and girls); vote 'er straight—then you can't go wrong."

It requires 266 electoral votes to put the candidate across this year and usually the electoral votes settle the election. However, in the case of Thomas Jefferson, his election over Aaron Burr was decided in the House of Representatives. Andrew Jackson was also the choice of the House. In both these cases the candidates had a plurality but not a majority in the electoral college. Hays had a minority of the popular vote, but a majority of the electoral college, and Harrison beat Cleveland in the same manner. Lincoln and Wilson each received less than a majority of the popular vote of the country, but each had a majority in the electoral college.

SWIFT & CO'S WEEKLY PRODUCE MARKET REVIEW

Creameries have generally received a larger volume of butterfat this week than during the same period last year. There is a large feed and forage crop available for fall feeding, and a continued increase in the butter made over a year ago is expected.

Butter stocks in storage are not as large as last year, but a year ago the United States was exporting butter, this year the movement is the other way—Denmark, New Zealand and Argentina are shipping butter to the United States.

There has been no marked change in country prices for butterfat. The demand for eggs is good. Current production is not sufficient to supply the requirements of the consumer, and storage stocks are being used to make up the deficiency. Prices of fresh eggs show a higher tendency.

Live poultry has been in good demand, due to the approaching Jewish holidays. On account of lighter freezer stocks there has also been a good demand for dressed poultry.

It is apparent that a large number of chickens are now reaching the marketing age, and with larger receipts there may be some decline in price from present quotations.

GAS METER IS ACCURATE

Put 100 of the best watches against 100 gas meters in a test for accuracy, exposed to the same varying conditions of heat, cold, humidity, and the meters will win out every time. The gas meter is regarded as one of the most accurate measuring instruments in use today. Like the registering turnstile in parks, railroad stations and fairgrounds, the meter will not operate unless something passes through it. The mechanism is not set in motion and the indicator hands can not move except as gas passes through and makes them move. It is interesting to know that the original mechanical principle adopted in 1844 for the correct measurement of gas still persists and that while hundreds of inventors have endeavored to discover something better, they have improved upon details only.

LODGE NOTES

Four candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of the Pythian sisterhood held Thursday night. After the work a social session will be held, when refreshments of ices and cakes will be served. A full attendance of the members is requested.

ALLEGED SPEEDER ARRESTED

Walter Kenney, Jr., of Paris, and B. R. Joutet, of Winchester, each driving an automobile, were arrested here for speeding. It is alleged that they were racing and that the two cars were running "neck and neck" when Officer Will White tried to stop them in front of the Baptist church. Policemen Steele headed them when the cars reached the corner of Main and Lexington streets. The young men were returning home from a dance at Frankfurt.

THE JEWISH NEW YEAR

The Jewish New Year, which began Sunday evening at six o'clock, will end at the same hour to-night. Most of the stores of Jewish merchants in this city were closed through the day yesterday. Yom Kippur, a day of atonement, will be observed about ten days later.
Rosh Hasana, or New Year's Day, is the first of the "Ten Days of Repentance," which ends on Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement. These days, the most sacred in the Jewish calendar, mark a preparation period for "Sabbath of Sabbaths," the holiest day of the Jewish year. Although the new month, Tishri, which began Sunday, is the seventh in the Jewish calendar, is celebrated as the beginning of the year 5681. In the Bible the day is termed the Day of the Memorial, or the Day of the Blowing of the Trumpet.

SWEARINGEN HAS FINE STABLE AT LEXINGTON.

J. G. Cooper, of Cincinnati, one of the best-known horsemen in Ohio, has been in the Bluegrass region several days visiting Bourbon and Fayette county stock farms. One purpose of Mr. Cooper's visit was to visit his stable of trotters at the Lexington track in charge of W. G. Swearingen, of Carthage, O., formerly of Paris. In this stable is Great McGregor, a four-year-old brother to McGregor, the Great, which Mr. Swearingen expects to drive in 2:08 during the Lexington trots; Rose Guy by Guy Axworthy, heat winner in the two-year-old trot at the Ohio State Fair; a gray trotter by Manrico out of Zillah D., 2:26½, by The Director-General, and a green pacer by Dan Cole, 2:15¼.

—The farm of Newberger & Moore, near Centerville, containing 129 acres, was sold at public auction Friday, to Mr. Moore, for $265 an acre. The farm was sold by Geo. Burberry, in 1919, to Newberg & Moore for $240 an acre. The sale Friday was made in order to dissolve the partnership between Mr. Newberger and Mr. Moore, the former retiring.

—The Jos. M. Rion property on Second street, purchased some time ago by B. Friedman, was sold at private sale Friday by Mitchell, Moreland & Mitchell, at a price reported at close to $7,500, to J. W. Rankin, of near Carlisle. Mr. Rankin is a brother of Newt Rankin, well-known stockman of Carlisle. Mr. Rankin will get possession next month, and will occupy the property as a home. The home was offered at public sale some time ago, but withdrawn.

—Failure to get school textbooks enough for distribution is worrying State Superintendent George Colvin, who said reports received from counties on the first test of the new compulsory attendance law show 90 per cent. of the children in school. Some country teachers have a hundred pupils. Practically all the schools are supplied with teachers, but many of them have more pupils than they can teach successfully, and housing facilities are inadequate. This condition, coupled with the elevation of the minimum rate, is expected to expedite consolidation of schools.

At Superintendent Colvin's request Attorney General Charles I. Dawson has written publishers that unless they comply with their contracts by supplying sufficient books immediately suit will be instituted to forfeit their bonds of $10,000.

The principal difficulty is with a publisher of geographies, which company writes that it has delayed publication of more books to get the latest European maps in; the publishers of the health reader, who reported that they had supplied 10,000 more copies last year than the school supply company estimated; and the publishers of the speller, who insist that there are 79,000 undistributed copies of the speller somewhere in Kentucky now.

FARMERS USING TRUCKS FOR HAULING GRAIN

The use of motor trucks both on the farm and by farmers of Bourbon county during the past year, and even in the past few months of the new year, has increased 1,000 per cent., according to the estimate given recently by several well-posted Bourbon men, and by dealers. With the continuation of road work in the county there will be an additional increase of 200 per cent.

Farmers, when they have prepared their product, especially grain, for the market, declare it is both more expedient and cheaper to send to the city and have their crops moved to the warehouses by truck than to haul it themselves by teams. One man gave an illustration. He stated that he lived near Millersburg. One team is required and fifty bushels is considered a good load for a team to draw a distance of eight miles to Paris. But one round trip could be made in a day, he said, and should rain interfere, he would be from one week to ten days getting his grain to the warehouse. A truck, he estimated, will convey three wagonloads of grain at one trip, and two trips can be made in one day.

"There you have it," said another man. "Your grain is out of the way, and you have settled for it, and the team which would have had heavy work during the entire time, is busy on the farm. You have one extra week to spend on the farm if you want, and one can accomplish a great deal of work in a week. And your horses are saved, besides. The trucks are just beginning to be recognized as the proper and most successful mode of transportation. They save both time and money."

After Thorough Trial a Detroit, Mich., Man Endorses Pe-ru-na

The following letter written from Detroit, Michigan is no snap judgment expressed on the merits of Pe-ru-na, the well-known catarrh remedy, but rather a mature, sober opinion formed after a full year's trial.

This is the way Mr. Michael Fako of 908 East Palmer Avenue, in the Michigan Metropolitan, writes: "After using PE-RU-NA for about one year will say I have found it a very good medicine for catarrh. It has helped me a great deal and I am very well satisfied. I have gained in weight, eat and sleep well, my bowels are regular and better color in my face."

"PE-RU-NA has done wonders and to me is worth its weight in gold. I shall continue to use PE-RU-NA as long as I live and recommend it to my friends who are troubled with catarrh."

Nothing can be more convincing than an endorsement of this nature from an actual user. There are many people in every community whose experience, in using Pe-ru-na, has been identical with Mr. Fako's. It is the standby for coughs, colds, catarrh, stomach and bowel disorders and all catarrhal conditions.

WILD FIRE AND RUST.

Two serious diseases of tobacco have recently appeared and are doing extensive damage in a large part of the Burley tobacco section. These are the wild fire and the angular leaf spot or what is known to the growers as rust. At this time, nothing effective can be done for the crops, but steam sterilizing of the beds next spring is recommended as a possible remedy and growers are advised to select next year's seed from disease free fields.

The tobacco wild fire first appeared in North Carolina and Virginia about four years ago, but never before has been reported as occurring in Kentucky. It appears as conspicuous yellow spots about one-fourth to one-half inch in diameter and later develops a brown spot in the center. Several spots may join and destroy a large section of the leaf or completely destroy it. It first appeared in the seed bed and did considerable damage shortly before planting time, some seed beds being completely destroyed by it. From the beds, it was carried to the field and the heavy rain and wind of July 13 spread it widely in some fields. Probably 10 to 20 per cent. of the fields about Lexington and the neighboring counties are effected to some extent with wild fire.

The angular leaf spot or rust is more widespread than the wild fire and has been found in all fields of Burley examined so far by the department of Agronomy, College of Agriculture, by Dr. W. D. Valleau. It begins as a small brown spot with a very narrow yellow border. Gradually on badly infected leaves the spot grows together, killing large areas of the leaves. Growers report that this has been present before, but only rarely has caused serious losses this early in the season.

Both diseases are of bacterial origin and spread rapidly during wet windy weather. Losses in some fields from one or the other or both of these diseases will amount to more than 75 per cent. of the crop.

Damages thus far, within a radius of 15 miles about Lexington has amounted to more than $100,000. At present, the disease is not spreading, but with the onset of a rainy season much more extensive damage can be expected.

QUIT TOBACCO

So easy to drop Cigarette, Cigar, or Chewing habit

No-To-Bac has helped thousands to break the costly, nerve-shattering tobacco habit. Whenever you have a longing for a smoke or chew, just place a harmless No-To-Bac tablet in your mouth instead. All desire stops. Shortly the habit is completely broken, and you are better off mentally, physically, financially. It's so easy, so simple. No-To-Bac is made by the owners of Cascarets; therefore is thoroughly reliable.

SWIFT & CO'S WEEKLY PRODUCE MARKET REVIEW.

Butter production is still heavy for this time of year, owing to good pasture conditions. This fact and the importations of foreign butter have given the market a little more than can normally be consumed, bringing about lower values. Values far the next few months probably will depend largely on the amount of butter imported, as the production in this country should show a gradual decrease.

Egg production, as is usual at this time of year, is falling off rapidly and as the demand is very good, dealers are now drawing freely from their storage stocks. These at the present time are lighter than for the same period a year ago.

Poultry is moving in larger volume and prices are naturally somewhat lower. There is a good demand at the present time, but with increased offerings, which are natural at this time of year, indications for future market are downward.

Carnations with stems sufficiently strong to support their heavy blooms without assistance have been bred by French floriculturists.

WHAT'S DOING IN POLITICS

With the appointment of an executive committee of men and women to guide the policies of the campaign, the Democrats have about completed their organization. Chairman John L. Grayot appointed the following men: Judge Alex P. Humphrey, Louisville; Senator George B. Martin, Catlettsburg; Judge Chas. A. Hardin, Harrodsburg; Col. P. H. Callahan, Louisville; Senator Chas. M. Harris, Versailles; Hon. W. J. Sparks, Mt. Vernon; Thos. S. Rhea, Russellville. Mrs. Samuel M. Wilson, chairman Woman's Department, has appointed the following women to advise with her: Mrs. John B. Castleman, Louisville; Mrs. A. M. Harrison, Lexington; Mr. John Fulton, Bardonia; Miss Alice Lloyd, Maysville; Mrs. Sam B. Watkins, Owensboro; Mrs. Shelley Rouse, Covington; and Mrs. R. B. Phillips, Paducah.

These two groups contain the leading citizens of Kentucky, and the quality of their attainments and character will doubtless attract the Independent as well as the Democratic voter.

William Adams, Jr., adjutant of the Stephen B. Whalen Post of the American Legion, has accepted the appointment as chairman of the Cox and Roosevelt Club in Harrison county. Mr. Adams is a member of the State Executive Board of the American Legion, and is one of the many former service men who recognize in the platform and purposes of the Democratic party those ideals for which they went to war.

Is there any connection between sixteen dollars a ton coal and the Republican slush fund? The coal operator who confessed at Chicago that he had collected sixteen thousand dollars from other coal operators to help elect Harding says he was forced to make these assessments. Are the people being assessed so much a ton of coal to help elect Harding? There seems to be distinct relation between the high price of coal and the high price of elections.

The League of Nations isn't good enough for Warren G. Harding to subscribe to, but it's good enough for him to steal from.

Here are a few of the oratorical heavy artillery who have been enlisted by chairman of the Speakers' Bureau, Harry V. McChesney, to shell the woods for the Democrats in this campaign: Gov. James M. Cox, Franklin D. Roosevelt, William G. McAdoo, Congressman Heflin, of Alabama; Senator J. C. W. Beckham; Senator A. O. Stanley, Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, Miss Alice Lloyd, Mrs. A. M. Harrison, Gov. Charles A. Brough, of Arkansas; Helm Bruce, W. W. Davies, Mrs. Geo. Bass, of Illinois; Mrs. Borden Harriman, of New York; A. W. Barkley, D. H. Kincheloe, R. Y. Thomas, Jr., Ben Johnson, A. B. Rouse, J. Campbell Cantrill, W. J. Fields.

Mr. H. B. Kinsolving, Jr., of Shelbyville, is another ex-service man who has become actively enlisted in the work of making Kentucky safe for Democracy this fall. Mr. Kinsolving was captain of the Field Artillery during the World War and served as instructor at Camp Taylor and Fort Sill. He has perfected organizations of Cox and Roosevelt clubs in every precinct in the state. His estimate is that there will be four thousand young men and young women Democratic clubs in the state when this work gets under way.

It is the vital duty of all organizations to awaken women to the necessity of registering in October so that they will not lose their vote in November. October 5 is registration day in all cities of the first four classes in Kentucky and also October 6, wherever fixed by ordinance. It is imperative that every white voter register on these two days.

HARDING WORRIES REPUBLICAN PRESS

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 14.—Whole-souled and unrestricted support of Warren G. Harding, the Republican candidate for president, is proving a trying effort for many Republican newspapers.

With Senator Harding's attempt to substitute his own plan of world peace for the League of Nations, already subscribed to by twenty-nine of the leading nations of the world, the majority of Republican press finds severe fault.

On this point the Philadelphia Public Ledger, Republican, predicts that Senator Harding "will not arouse any tremendous enthusiasm in this practical nation by rallying it to take a noble stand on the rotten platform of the Hague Tribunal, the most pathetic failure in history."

On the same question the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, a Republican paper, disagrees with Harding in his attempt to prove that Poland's troubles can be traced to the League of Nations. The League, it says, is an experiment that is entitled to every chance to make good.

"Poor old Marionette" soliloquizes the Philadelphia Record. "He has tried to straddle on the issue of the League of Nations and is clearly doomed to a bad fall."

The Ohio State Journal, Republican, asserts that Gov. Cox makes out a strong case in his slush fund charges that can't be answered by mere denials.

KENTUCKY BANKS MAKE BIG STRIDES FINANCIALLY

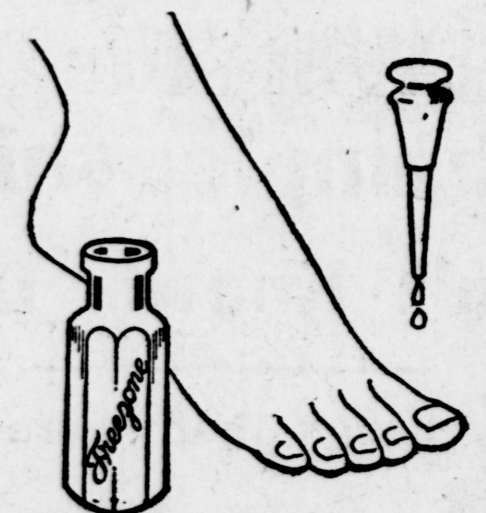

The total resources of the 450 State banks of June 25, 1920, which was the date of the last call for statement of conditions of banks, amounted to $235,566,654.28, as compared to $235,585,571.75 April 12 of this year. Four hundred and forty-nine State banks had total resources amounting to $210,496,039.25 June 25, 1919.

Deputy Banking Commissioner W. W. Peavyhouse has issued an appeal to the bankers to pursue, during the coming year a sane and conservative policy in the extension of credits, the maintaining of reserves, the practice of permitting overdrafts and in other vital principles in the operation of the banks of the State.

The State banks of Kentucky have made gigantic strides during the past eight years, and have been, he said, a great factor in the accomplishment of the wonderful developments which have come to this State during the past decade. These developments are in their infancy, and Deputy Banking Commissioner Peavyhouse says: "In the slow readjustment of the affairs of our country we can see nothing but prosperity ahead, and we look to the future with the utmost confidence in the final settlement of our multitudinous industrial relationships upon a firm and solid and satisfactory basis."

FOLDING BED REFUGE.

(Cynthiana Democrat)

There are always some humorous features to even great calamities. The cloudburst and flood at Carlisle, was no exception. One man on rescue mission went to the home of a maiden lady whose house was under water, and managed to reach a window, knocked and asked if he should take her out. "And where do you think I am?" came the inquiry from within. "I have no idea," he replied. "I am perched on top of a folding bed. How is the water?" "I think it is falling," he said. "Well, if its falling," said the lady, philosophically, "I'll just stay where I am until it goes down." And she did.

WHISKY TO BE ASSESSED $54 BARREL.

Whisky will be assessed $54 the barrel, if the tentative assessment placed on it by the State Tax Commission stands. This is an increase of $29. Estimating the amount of whisky in bond at 40,000,000 gallons, the Commission expects liquor to yield the State $160,000 in revenue. Counties and cities in which the bonded warehouses are located will receive twice as much.

BUICK

STURDILY built—designed for power and dependability, possessing grace and beauty in every line—the new Buick Nineteen Twenty One series signally upholds the traditions that have made the name Buick a notable word in the automotive industry.

Two decades have more than justified the unwavering fidelity to the accepted engineering ideals to which Buick stands committed. The same rugged Valve-in-Head motor refined is a distinguishing feature of every model.

In appearance, the Buick Nineteen Twenty One series is notable for the harmonious blending of low, graceful body lines; in appointments, for those added refinements that so materially increase the pleasure and comfort of motoring.

In addition to the general features of the new models the Buick Live-Passenger Touring Car (Twenty One Forty Five) possesses a roominess of tonneau and new arrangement of seating that afford occupants the utmost in riding comfort. For the business man or his family; for the needs of city driving or country driving, this model excels because of its capacity for varied service.

STATE GAME LAWS HAVE BEEN CHANGED

Bourbon county hunters will be interested to know that the last session of the State Legislature changed the game laws, especially relating to the time of hunting doves and squirrels. The open season for hunting doves is from September 1 to December 16, and fifteen doves is as many as may be killed in any one day.

The squirrel season is from September 1 to December 16. The quail season remains the same, from November 15 to January 1, but only twelve quail may be killed in any one day. Fines upon conviction for violating any provisions of the new law range from $15 to $50.

Catarh Can Be Cured

Catarh is a local disease greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. It therefore requires constitutional treatment. CLUB ACTIVITIES TO BEGIN IN OCTOBER.

The coming of October will witness a renewing of activity in the club life of Paris, as at that time the Women's Clubs will begin their fall and winter programs.

At a recent meeting of the newly-organized Club, held in the Club rooms this announcement was made by Miss Lucy Simms, chairman of the community service. Miss Simms stated that the Club activities for October would be cared for by her department in a study of citizenship to be conducted by Dr. Frank L. McVey, president of Kentucky University, and Dr. E. T. Tuthill, professor of history and political economy at the University.

The Music Department, in choosing "America in Music," will present interesting programs, some of which include Indian music, mountain folk songs, plantation melodies, men in American music, women in American music, American operas and oratorios, and a McDowell group. The Art Department is choosing "America in Art." The studies will include interior decorating, American pottery, American painters, Kentucky artists and their work, and a visit from Dixie Seiden. Gardening will be classed with this department, and lantern slides, helpful for landscape gardening, will be a feature. The Literary Department is planning a series of lectures and programs of current events.

Suffered For Ten Years And Was About To Give Up When He Began Taking Tanlac

"Tanlac has done the work for me that nothing else could," declared Leizerin S. Sherman, of 728 1/2 Oak Hill, Youngstown, Ohio.

"For ten years," said Mr. Sherman, "I suffered with my nerves and a bad case of stomach trouble. My appetite was very poor and what little I did eat soured and the pain was so awful that it almost doubled me up. I had weak spells and at times became dizzy. I could hardly sleep at night, and I felt so miserable that I lost time from my run all along. I tried all sorts of medicines, but kept going down hill until I thought I would have to quit work entirely.

"My first bottle of Tanlac did me so much good that I just kept on taking it until now I am a well man. My appetite is fine. I am picking up in weight and there never was a time that my stomach was in better shape. I don't know what it is to be nervous any more and I sleep sound all night long. My wife was also in a nervous, run-down condition, and after taking several bottles, she is now enjoying the best of health and feeling fine again."

PICKING A TETCHING FORCE

Superintendents of schools are having a busy time nowadays. Many teachers are resigning to take jobs in business offices. It is a hard job to find suitable applicants, under present conditions.

The old time horse trader used often to be fooled on a horse, but probably not so many times as school authorities are disappointed in their teachers. Many a quiet girl who does not look as if she would amount to much, yet has a reserve force that establishes her authority. And some girls who have style and fine manners, and who might be charming women in other circumstances, yet lack those solid qualities of patience and affection for children that are essential in good teaching.

NATIONWIDE PLEA TO JEWS

Mr. Albert Rosenblatt, of New York, Chairman of the Building Committee, announces that on the occasion of the Jewish New Year, which begins on Sunday evening, September 12, a countrywide appeal for material support is being made to the Jews of America by the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society of America with headquarters at 229 East Broadway, Philadelphia, San Francisco and Seattle.

Since January of this year a commission, sent by the Society, has been abroad for the purpose of bringing about the reunion of Jewish families that have been separated by the war. Over fifty thousand residents of this country registered with the Society, their request with the Society to have their families located and guided and protected on their journey to this country. All these residents are well-to-do citizens and are in a position to take care of the dear ones, either wives and children or parents. Within the past few months thousands of Jewish refugees have arrived in the United States.

Mr. Harry Fischel, Treasurer and Chairman of the Building Committee, stated that in order to meet the extraordinary demands that are being made upon the Society, the former Aster Library Building, at 425-437 Lafayette street, New York, has been purchased and is now being remodelled into the Society's new home. When opened, it will be the national center for Jewish immigrant aid activities through which Jewish immigrants will be guided, protected and Americanized.

The work of the Society has the approval and endorsement of the Departments of State and of Labor in Washington and the active co-operation of the leaders of American Jews, such as Jacob H. Schiff, of New York and Julius Rosenwald, of Chicago. It has, too, the support of eighteen hundred National Directors, leaders of Jewish communities in six hundred cities.

OILING ROADS IS BUT A MAKE-SHIFT.

Cost of permanent work on highways is proving so great this year, that some States are setting aside their plans for concrete and macadam work. They will substitute oiling, as a temporary makeshift.

This is a disappointing outcome. It shows the folly of the people who opposed good roads work at a time when it could have been done for half the money.

You can't make a hard road simply by turning oil onto dust. And you don't repair macadam worn full of holes, simply by oiling it. But if a road is made of fairly good material, a good oil may hold it together. All supplies of oil used in Kentucky should be carefully tested to see if they have good binding qualities.

MILLERSBURG

—The M. C. will open Thursday. The outlook is good. The students will begin to arrive Wednesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Winnett attended the funeral of his sister, Miss Anna Dimmett, at Maysville, Saturday.

—The Master Mason Degree was conferred on Rev. R. K. White, of the Baptist church, in Amity Lodge No. 40, F. & A. M., Monday evening. The work was done by Mr. A. C. Ball, W. M.

—The M. M. I. will open Monday, September 20, in the City Hall. Maj. Nelson was busy Saturday taking measures for suits and overcoats for the Cadets. He left Monday for Cincinnati, where he will place his order for the same.

—The following are among the number who are attending the State Fair at Louisville from Millersburg: Col. and Mrs. A. T. Maffott and daughter, Miss Alberta Maffott, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Dimmett, G. E. Reynolds, E. M. Thomason and A. S. Miller.

—THE SICK—S. M. Allen is improving nicely; J. T. Judy improves slowly; Squire E. P. Thomason is able to be about the house; M. M. Bowles is somewhat improved; W. M. Brown continues about the same; Mesdames Fannie Norton, Clara Shanks and Anna Darnell are very much the same.

A company has been formed in Australia to manufacture the motor fuel known as naltale in Papua, where plans and trees have been found that yield 73 gallons of alcohol per ton.

At the present rate, 200 years will be needed to finish mapping the world. But this may be reduced to twenty years, if the airplane is brought into service.

Italy claims to rank next to the United States in the production of motion pictures, its 82 companies turning out about 64,000,000 meters of films annually.

STOCK, CROP, ETC.

Robert E. Moreland, of Louisville, known as one of the best judges of horses in the State, purchased recently of Henry S. Caywood, of North Middletown, a very promising green four-year-old saddle mare, for $1,500. The mare is a most promising individual and will make a good show mare under Mr. Moreland's training.

Henry S. Caywood, of North Middletown, shipped to Louisville, Friday, eighteen head of fine black cattle, which will be shown at the Kentucky State Fair. The cattle weighed an average of 1,516 pounds, and were in the very best of condition. Other Bourbon county stockmen will make shipments to Louisville this week, for exhibition at the State Fair.

A bunch of fine cattle said by competent judges to have been the finest lot ever shipped from Paris, the property of Henry S. Caywood, Robert Jones and Chas. C. Clarke, all of the North Middletown precinct, went forward Friday night to Louisville, destined for exhibition at the State Fair this week. The shipment was in charge of Mr. Jones, and comprised fifteen head of two-year-old Polled Angus cattle, averaging 1,500 pounds, twenty-five white-faced yearling heifers, one load of roan Shorthorn feeders, and a superb load of extra fancy Herefords, averaging 1,500 pounds. At the State Fair last year Mr. Caywood won $1,500 in premiums on his cattle, and afterward sold them for $20 per hundred.

MATRIMONIAL.

—Marriage licenses were granted Saturday from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton to Dora Waggoner, 19, and Miss Mamie V. Johnson, 18, and William Henry Hall, 22, and Miss Bertha Ritchie, 17, all of the Austerlitz vicinity.

RICE—COURTNEY

—Leslie Courtney, 28, farmer, and Miss Elizabeth Rice, 18, both of Donerale, Scott county, secured marriage license here and were married shortly after by County Judge George Batterton, in his private office in the court house.

GOSSETT—FLORENCE

—Mannuel Florence, 21, and Mollie Gossett, 21, both of Cynthiana, secured marriage license here, and were married at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. C. H. Greer, pastor of the Paris Methodist church. The young couple returned to Cynthiana where they will reside in the future.

STIVERS—ARMSTRONG

—Friends in this city of Miss Mattie Stivers, formerly of Paris, were surprised to hear of her marriage in Prescott, Arizona, Friday, to Mr. Ernest Joseph Armstrong, of Flint, Michigan. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Stivers, of Lexington and Paris. Mrs. Stivers, in company with Mrs. William Piper, went as far as Cincinnati, Tuesday, with her daughter.

Mrs. Armstrong is a graduate of the Paris High School, and made her home in this city prior to moving to Lexington to reside. She was a member of the graduating class of 1909 at the University of Kentucky. She is accomplished and talented, active in church work, and will be greatly missed by her co-workers.

Mr. Armstrong is the son of Mrs. Margaret Armstrong, of Flint, Mich., and has been engaged in the automobile business in Flint and Detroit, Mich. He is at present in the furniture business in Prescott, Arizona. After a brief wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong will be "at home" to their friends at 238 Marina street.

HUFFMAN—MASTIN.

—The announcement of their marriage, which took place in this city on July 21, 1919, was made public Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Rankin Mastin, of this city. The bride, before she became Mrs. Mastin, was Miss Edna Huffman, of Covington, formerly a resident of Paris. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Huffman, moved from Paris to Covington some years ago. Mr. Huffman was, during his residence here, in the employ of the Paris Gas & Electric Co., and was well-known to the people of this city.

The ceremony was performed by County Judge George Batterton, in his private office in the court house, the attending witnesses being Mr. and Mrs. Jack Owsley, of Paris. There was no parental objections on either side to the marriage, but the young couple desired to avoid the publicity and other frills incident to a public wedding, being satisfied that no others were so vitally interested as themselves. They kept their secret well, as evidenced by the fact that the first intimation came in the shape of the announcement made in the last issue of THE NEWS.

The bride is one of the handsomest and most charming young women in the State, and has a large circle of friends and acquaintances in this and other cities of the Bluegrass, who unite in wishing her life-long happiness. She is a sister of Mr. Clyde Huffman, of the R. P. Walsh clothing store. Mr. Mastin is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mastin, his father being the Bourbon representative of the Standard Oil Co. Mr. Mastin is connected with the Merchants' Delivery Service, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Mastin have taken rooms at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Owens, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Owsley, on Ferguson street. At an informal gathering of friends at their new home Sunday evening the newly-weds were presented with a number of handsome and useful presents, among them being a number that will be of special value in the household in the years to come.

ALWAYS A WAY AROUND

Oscar Haase, whose name may not be familiar to you now, but who writes music which will some day make him famous, is just back in New York from a vacation in the mountains of Vermont. For several days he was a guest at the bungalow of a Boston man who is a humorist. When the dry law went in, the man from Boston bought the fittings of a well-known buffet bar, shipped them to Vermont, and installed them, intact, in the butler's pantry of his bungalow. The bungalow is squatted squarely on the Canadian boundary line. In the living room is a sign which reads: "We Are Law-Abiding Citizens and This Is a Prohibition Country. If You Are Dry, Step Into the Butler's Pantry—It's In Canada."
